JAPANESE NOTAN

BALANCE THROUGH CONTRAST

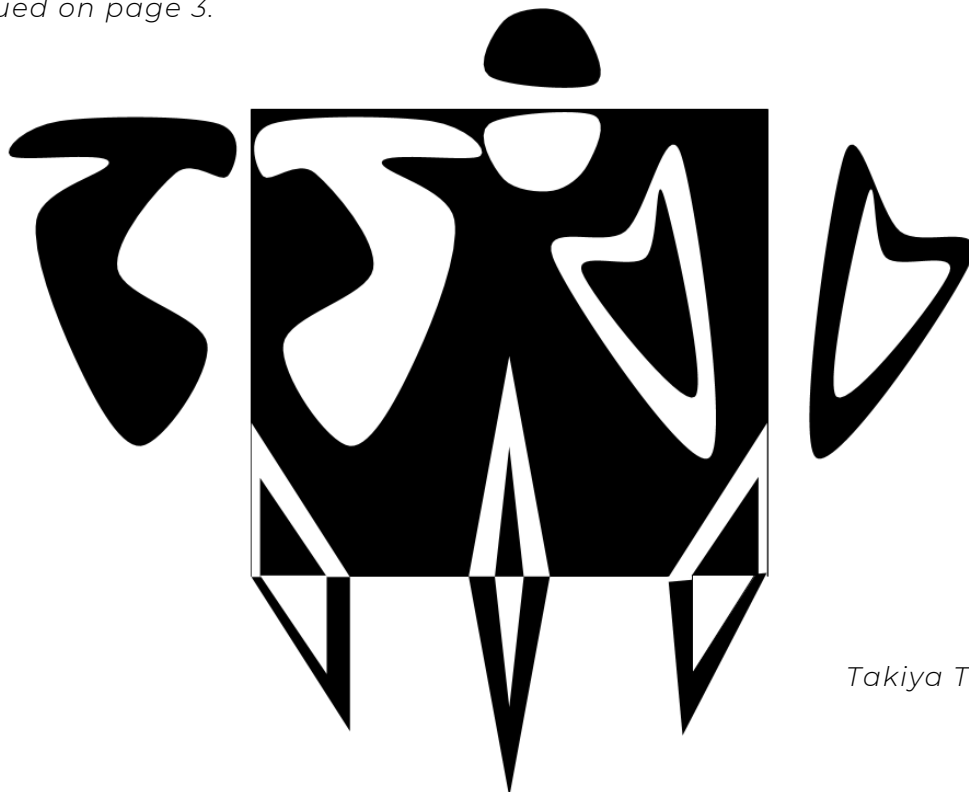

Notan is a Japanese word that means "light-dark". In Japanese art, the principle of Notan is defined as the interaction between positive (light) and negative (dark) space.

The objective of our notan is to create a composition that is visually balanced, where the dark and light areas work in harmony together. How do you think our 3-5 scholars did?

MIDDLE SCHOOL MOSAICS

Mosaics are a type of art usually created using broken glass or sea shells arranged to create a recognizable image.

Middle school scholars got creative during their mosaic skill builder and created some selfies with this technique!

GOT TEA?

WHERE'S BERNIE?

This Tuesday, the United States inaugurated President Joseph R. Biden and Vice President Kamala D. Harris in Washington D.C. One of the funnier outcomes of this event was the now viral sensation of editing Vermont Senator Bernie Sanders sitting in his chair at the inauguration into photos. Can you spot Sanders in these photos?

FAMOUS ARTIST OF THE WEEK

MEET CHRISTOPHER JOHN ROGERS

Christopher John Rogers is a 27-year-old, who founded his New York label in 2016. He was raised in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and studied fashion at the Savannah College of Art and Design. Rogers was the designer who dressed Vice President Kamala Harris at her 2021 Inauguration. The all purple outfit worn by Harris at this event was designed intentionally by Rogers to represent the combining of red and blue to represent unity. Designers and other artists will often use color to convey "secret" messages to viewers in ways like this.
